

FLICKR ACCOUNT SETUP

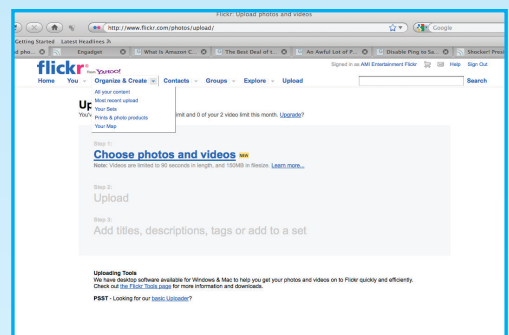

REFERENCE GUIDE

Creating a Flickr account is easy and manages photos you'd like to display on the Rock-Star Lx and NGX belt feature.

- Go to www.flickr.com
- Click the "Create Your Account" button. (For quick and easy sign in, you may also use an existing Facebook, Google, or Yahoo! account)
- Once signed in, click the arrow next to the "You" tab at the top of the page and click "Upload Photos and Videos" from the drop-down menu
- Follow the on-screen instructions for choosing and uploading your photos
- Once photos are uploaded, click the arrow next to the "Organize and Create" tab at the top of the page and click "Your Sets" from the drop-down menu
- Follow the on-screen instructions to create and name a new set
- Add photo sets by dragging them from photostream into main window, when finished, click "Save"

Flickr sign in page

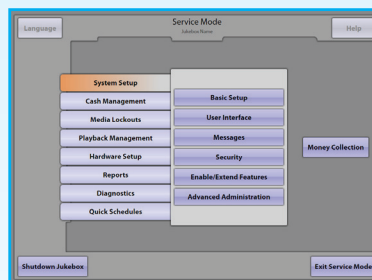

Organize and Create page

ROCK-STAR LX™ & NGX™ BELT SETUP

FOR FLICKR ACCOUNT

REFERENCE GUIDE

- Enter Service Menu
- Touch System Setup
- Touch User Interface
- Touch Belt Settings
- Enter your flickr user name*, existing set name, and create a slideshow title and subtitle
- Touch Save and allow 5-10 minutes to upload on belt

*Flickr User Name can be found at the top of the Flickr home page (www.flickr.com) or by clicking the "You" drop-down, then selecting "Your Account" and "Your Screen Name". Please note the User Name is not the e-mail used for signing in.